PROPOSED PROGRAM

The plan is to have a 1-hour virtual event on Friday, October 30, from 12:00 to 1:00. Deborah Cordova will moderate a 3-4 person discussion. Texas Supreme Court Justice Debra Lehrmann has agreed to be one of the speakers. We have ideas for other possible speakers and are working on this. It is possible that a list of other Ginsburg-related initiatives sponsored by Texas bar associations will be announced. We're planning to do an electronic flyer for publicity, and then a written summary of the event afterwards as a press release.
